IDENTITY

St. Anselm's Sr. Sec. School, Abu Road, is a minority unaided educational institution of Param Prasad Charitable Society (PPCS) managed by the catholic fathers (MCBS) established in 1989. The school is affiliated to CBSE, Delhi (No. 1730169) and has become a premier educational institution in the vicinity of Abu Road. The school has become a well appreciated Temple of Knowledge in the state of Rajasthan.

The school provides a structured, sustainable and nurturing environment in which students can learn creatively and joyfully. We promote the precepts of respect, responsibility, persistence and fairness among the students. This approach enables them to become good human beings, committed citizens and industrious professionals. We encourage our students to nurture critical thinking, practical application of knowledge and appreciation for others that make every student competent in a rapidly changing world.

The school has achieved splendid results in academic as well as co-curricular activities. We adopt the latest innovative teaching and learning techniques. We have developed a state of the art infrastructure facilitation including Science Labs, Mathematics Lab, Computer Lab, full-fledged Gymnasium, Library, Audio Visual Room, Music Room, Counselling Room, spacious playgrounds, sanitation facilities etc.... The efficient, well qualified and experienced teaching staff and the hardworking supporting staff are instrumental in taking our school to further growth.
